WHY GAME

Right now there are a few things you can do to change your life from a Survivor of Stress to a Warrior of Life. Yes. Right now. Right now there are a few things you can do that gets at the heart of everything. I call it the “Why Game.” Kids are famous for asking “why.” Why this, why that, and more questions of why? You might be thinking: “Why should I do it? Why do I want to do this game?”

I’ll tell you why:

In order to have what you really want, you must first be who you really are...and in order to do that – you must answer these “why” questions...and answer them honestly.

You already know things can’t stay the same. Something’s got to change....Why am I asking you to answer these questions, honestly? Because answering these questions honestly increases your awareness of who you are, what you want, and most importantly why. It’s an understanding of you. And to not begin here – building this foundational understanding – would be to be like any other program out there – and that folks, is totally unacceptable. So, let’s begin...

Why Game

Why care about stress?

Why care at all?
